S O L I C I T O R S

Barker Gotelee provides legal advice and assistance to private clients and all types of business, with particular niches not only in agriculture but also road transport, a vital sector of our East Anglian economy.

Our road transport legal services includes advice on carriage of goods, liens, contractual issues, purchase/sale of businesses and property, employment law including TUPE, commercial disputes and also road transport regulatory work encompassing operator licensing and enforcement issues such as tachograph/drivers hours rules, maintenance, overloading, construction and use offences in the criminal courts and at public inquiries.

Tim Ridyard qualified as a solicitor in 1990. He is a partner and road transport law specialist, primarily in the field of operator licensing and court/ public inquiry advocacy.

In the last few years he has specialised, although not exclusively, in road transport law having previously concentrated on court advocacy as a criminal litigator since becoming a solicitor. His background in criminal law has proved valuable in representing operators and drivers at public inquiries before Traffic Commissioners and in the Magistrates and Crown Courts.

Tim also is a regular contributor to commercial and legal journals in the road transport sector. He has Higher Rights of Audience in the criminal courts.
