

Delivering Expert Advice & Services to the Shipping & Logistics Industry

CHARTERED ACCOUNTANTS

Accountancy, taxation and business advice services for the shipping and logistics industry

“Being a successful accountancy firm for over a century, we know what is important to our clients”

We are a major regional independent partnership and one of the UK’s top 50 accountancy firms. We have offices in both Ipswich and Colchester and across Norfolk. Our policy is always to be proactive and to offer the best possible solutions for all your personal and business needs.

In today’s ever-changing world we are not just chartered accountants but are also business advisors, dedicated to becoming your first choice. As expert advisors to the shipping and logistics sector, we have a specialist team of accountants who can offer advice in this area.

Our team can offer you a fully comprehensive service in:

- Personal and corporate tax and planning
- Preparation of annual accounts
- Assistance with management accounts
- Audit services
- Strategic business planning and consultancy
- Management buy-outs or reconstruction
- Raising finance
- Buying and selling businesses
- VAT & international trade issues

We realise that service and a strong personal relationship is key to the advisor/client relationship and make sure we understand your business almost as well as you do, in order to enable us to offer the most proactive and relevant advice. The right team of people will be selected in order to offer you the very best service and to give you the confidence to treat us as a trusted partner in growing and developing your business.
